

We're an informal group of Course students scouting out the miles of gorgeous Forest Service Trails to eventually make a map of a long loop in and around the beautiful red rocks of Sedona.

The segments will always start and end at a parking lot, for which you will need a Red Rock Pass.

In the hot weather we are meeting at 5 am, when it is cool. Hikes may be 2-4 hours long.

